CHAPTER: MONEY

LECTURE NO: 1

BY AARAV PANDIT

FINANCE COLLECTION /   BANKNOTE   INR

What is Money?

Money is what we use to buy things, like your favorite snacks or toys!

In India, our money is called Rupees (₹) and Paise (p).

Think of Rupees as the big brother and Paise as the little brother.

The most important rule is:
₹1 = 100p
(One Rupee is equal to 100 Paise)

FINANCE COLLECTION /   BANKNOTE   INR

Conversion: Paise to Rupees

The Rule

$$\div$$

To change paise into rupees, we DIVIDE by 100.

A simple trick is to place a decimal point

two digits from the right.

$$\frac{\text{Paise}}{100} = \text{Rupees}$$

Examples

Let's practice the rule!

50 paise → ₹0.50

5 paise → ₹0.05

320 paise → ₹3.20

Conversion: Rupees to Paise

The Rule

To change rupees into paise, we MULTIPLY by 100.

A simple trick is to just remove the decimal point

Rupees × 100 = Paise

Examples

Let's practice the rule!

₹0.50 → 50 paise

₹3.20 → 320 paise

₹12.00 → 1200 paise
